FEMALE ROOKIE OF THE YEAR

NOMINEES

Micheline Green

Rugby
Applied Social Sciences I
Beaconsfield, Quebec

Mich had an immediate impact on the Concordia rugby team as she led the Stingers to an undefeated season and first place in the QSSF regular season. The First year Applied Social Science student is a member of both the Canadian National and Quebec Select teams

Lora Hutchison

Soccer
Communication Studies I
Chateauguay, Quebec

Lora helped the Stingers to a first place finish in the Quebec Student Sports Federation and was named the league Rookie of the Year. The communication studies major scored 3 goals in 7 games and was an outstanding two-way player. Lora previously played for the John Abbott Islanders and was a member of the Quebec Provincial team in 1988.

Sharon Sandy

Basketball
Leisure Studies I
Brossard, Quebec

Sharon had an outstanding freshman year as witnessed by her selection as Quebec Rookie of the Year as well as being named to the CIAU All-Canadian Rookie squad. Sharon, a Leisure Studies major who played at Champlain CEGEP averaged 10.8 points and 3 rebound a game.

MALE ROOKIE OF THE YEAR

NOMINEES

Jean-François Joyal

Football
Political Science I
Montreal, Quebec

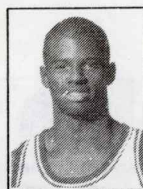

Jean-François made an immediate impact on the O-QIFC in his first year. The Political Science major was a unanimous all-star selection at wide-receiver, was selected as the league's top rookie and was a finalist for the Peter Gorman Trophy presented to the CIAU's Most Outstanding Rookie. Jean-François led all Concordia receivers with 30 completions, a 13.4 average and 3 touchdowns.

Martin St-Pierre

Hockey
Commerce I
Montreal, Quebec

Martin had an outstanding rookie year as he helped lead the young Stingers to a Top Ten ranking in the CIAU National polls. The commerce student was the team's leading blueline scorer with 28 points (9 goals, 19 assists) in 33 games.

Emerson Thomas

Basketball
Engineering I
LaSalle, Quebec

Emerson made his mark on this year's basketball team, an amazing feat when you consider that the Stingers returned 8 players from last year's National Champions. The mechanical engineering major started 12 games for the cagers. An all-purpose player, Emerson's talent and work ethic reflect his potential to be one of Concordia's top players.

FEMALE ATHLETE OF THE YEAR

NOMINEES

Annie Caron

Soccer
Graphic Arts II
Montreal, Quebec

Annie has become Concordia's first three-time All-Canadian as she helped lead the Stingers to first place in the QSSF. Annie had an outstanding year with the Stingers, leading the Quebec Student Sports Federation with 13 goals in just 7 games en route to being named the league's Most Valuable Player. The Graphics Arts major is a National Team member and has coached the John Abbott Islanders.

Stefani Desmarais

Volleyball
Commerce III
Victoria, British Columbia

Stefani, a native of Victoria, was named to the QSSF all-star team, the first Concordia volleyball player to be so honoured. The Commerce student is a versatile player whose leadership on and off the court helped develop the Stingers volleyball programme to an elite level.

Julie Klotz

Alpine Skiing
Geography II
Ottawa, Ontario

Julie Klotz, a second year Geography student who finished second in the 1991 Quebec University Ski Circuit led Concordia's women's team to their first place finish in the league championships. A member of the Canadian National Team from 1986-1989, Julie was one of five skiers selected to the World Student Games held in Sapporo, Japan this past March.

Laura Leslie

Hockey
Exercise Science III
Montreal, Quebec

Laura set an all-time record this year with an amazing 291 career points. The Exercise Science major scored 99 points this season. During Laura's three years with the team she has helped lead the team to an incredible 55-1 league record and three consecutive championships.

MALE ATHLETE OF THE YEAR

NOMINEES

Ron Aboud

Football
Commerce IV
Montreal, Quebec

Ron had an outstanding season as he led OQIFC quarterbacks in every major passing category. The fourth year commerce student threw for 1491 yards and 9 touchdowns, completing 57% of his passes, to earn a berth on the CIAU All-Canadian team. This year he received the Alouette Alumni Trophy presented to the top university player in Quebec and was MVP of the annual Shrine Bowl.

Nick Arvanitis

Basketball
Graduate Studies - Administration
St. Laurent, Quebec

Nick capped off a remarkable 5 year career by being named to the All-Canadian team. The second year graduate student led the Stingers to their third consecutive league title averaging 20 points and 7 rebounds a game, earning him the MVP selection for the OUAA East.

Robert Desjardins

Hockey
Political Science III
Verdun, Quebec

Bobby had an outstanding season in leading the Stingers to a second place finish in the Ontario University Athletics Association, earning him Most Valuable Player award and selection to the All-Canadian team. Desjardins had a sparkling 1.84 goals against average and consistently came up with big saves when the game was on the line.

Anthony Merlo

Wrestling
Exercise Science III
Pierrefonds, Quebec

Anthony capped off an outstanding season by winning a gold medal (65 kg) and being named CIAU Wrestler of the Year at the Nationals. At two prestigious invitational tournaments (Mount Allison and St. Francis Xavier), the third year exercise science student took first place and was named Outstanding Wrestler of the latter.
